

The thesis „The Role of Nonprofit Organizations in Supplying Social Services to Seniors in the Czech Republic“ focuses on the role of nonprofit organizations within the system of social services for seniors in the Czech Republic, with the focus on organizations operating in Prague. To answer the main questions of the thesis, it employs the qualitative research methods. The goal of the thesis is to examine the various forms of cooperation within nonprofit organizations and state, as well as local authorities and its organizations. It also aims to find out whether there are any specific roles which nonprofit organizations represent as the suppliers of social services for seniors in the Czech Republic and if so, which ones.
